

75 organisations from the clothing sector have pledged to consistently measure and report their global carbon, water and waste impacts for the first time. SCAP Signatories have committed to play their part in reducing the carbon, water and waste footprints of clothing they supply or receive in the UK by 15%, starting from a baseline year of 2012.

Signatories

Age Cymru
Arcadia Group
ASOS
Bag it Up
Bristol Textile Recycling
British Heart Foundation
British Red Cross
Cancer Research UK
Cardiff YMCA Housing Association
Choose2Reuse
Clothes Aid
Co-Options
Crest Co-operative
ERC/SOEX
George at Asda
Jojo Maman Bébé
Lawrence M Barry & Co (LMB)
Marks and Spencer
Mantis World
Nathans Wastesavers
Next
Next Best Clothing/Bag2school
Oxfam
Primark
Sainsbury's
Salvation Army Trading Company
Ted Baker
Tesco
The Air Ambulance Service
Tyddyn Mon
Viridor
Whistles

Supporters

Aid by Trade Foundation
Antur Waunfawr
Bangor University
Better Cotton Initiative
Biov8tion
British Retail Consortium
Cardiff and Vale College
Centre for Sustainable Fashion (LCF)
Coleg Sig Gar
concept+design
Defra
Ethical Expert
Fairtrade Foundation
Global Organic Textiles Standard
Gone for Good
Korbond
LARAC
LocalitEEE
Made-By
Nottingham Trent University
One Baby Owner
Proctor & Gamble Europe Fabric Care
Recyclatex
Rentez Vous
School of Design, University of Leeds
Scottish Textile and Leather Association
Seren Cf
Soil Association
Stitched up
Swansea University
Textile Exchange
Textile Recycling Association
The Scottish Government
The Textile Institute
Toogoodtowaste
Track 2000
Unilever
University of Huddersfield
University of South Wales
University of Westminster
Wales Government
Welsh Retail Consortium
Worn Again